Date of decision: 24/10/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr.Zaveri, Ld.counsel for the respondent No.7 states that the main petition is against the election of the Market Committee and the term of the said Market Committee is also over and subsequently the said Market Committee is bifurcated into two and therefore he states that the term in any case is over and hence the dispute raised in the petition becomes only academic and the petition in reality has become infructuous.

2. In view of the above statement, this petition is disposed of as having become infructuous. Liberty to parties in case of difficulty is granted. Rule is discharged. There shall be no order as to costs.
